Playing festivals and other dates from the Pacific Ocean, on the last West Coast Legendary Rhythm & Blues Cruise, all the way to Paris (France, not Texas) and everywhere in between, the Lionel Young Band has been carving out a unique sound never before heard in the blues world. Or any other, for that matter. Violin, trumpet, sax, bass and drums? You've got to be kidding! That's what any one would say, right? Rave reviews, plus winning the 2011 International Blues Challenge (IBC) in Memphis, TN, would say otherwise. Lionel tours as a four- or five-piece band, with or without a sax player.
